LB 1035

pressing business this morning. Does that mean that he...his salary is so inadequate that he is now taking in washing and ironing? The ironing...the washing was done and he has to do the ironing now, is that the pressing business?

SENATOR JENSEN: (Laugh) It may be. I don't know what the pressing business is and I don't know what you get paid for pressing shirts or ironing today.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. I'm glad you pointed out, 'cause some of our colleagues just now got it. But, members of the Legislature, this particular amendment I do agree with. I talked to Senator Landis. But there's some other pernicious amendments that are going to be offered on behalf of the banking industry or certain segments of it and they are not a part of any agreement of mine and if they come up this morning then we're going to talk about them a long, long time and LB 1035, the fate of LB 1035 is in serious doubt. But this one I'm supporting and I want to make that crystal clear.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Further debate on the motion to return? Senator Jensen, you're recognized to close on the motion to return.

SENATOR JENSEN: I'll waive closing, thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Closing is waived. The question before the body is, shall LB 1035e return to Select File for specific Amendment 4069? All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 35 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to return the bill.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: The bill is returned. Senator Jensen, you're recognized to open on the amendment.

SENATOR JENSEN: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the body. You have heard the reasons for returning it and now I would just ask that you would adopt AM4069. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Debate on the amendment? Senator Jensen,
